

KICK-OFF MEETING IN SOFIA, BULGARIA

The kick-off meeting, hosted by Know and Can was held in Sofia, Bulgaria on November 18th and 19th, 2024. During the meeting the partners shared experiences, and discussed the project's overall goals, structure, and key work packages. The meeting focused particularly on the development of a curriculum for teachers and training workshops aimed at tackling bullying in schools, as well as the creation of educational bullying scenarios and their gamified versions to support interactive learning. Partners also discussed project management procedures, communication tools, and dissemination strategies to ensure effective collaboration and long-term impact.

DEVELOPMENT OF TEACHER CURRICULUM

We are actively working on the comprehensive training curriculum for teachers, developed using findings from literature review and focus groups. The curriculum covers aspects such as:

- Understanding bullying;
 - Intervention strategies;
 - Fostering supportive school environments;
 - Empowering students;
 - Involving parents and the community;
 - Addressing cyber-bullying;
- You can expect it very soon!

WORK ON BULLYING SCENARIOS

We have started developing scenarios for students aged 7-16 addressing different types of bullying, aimed at fostering empathy and inclusion, which are grounded in real-life cases.

WORK ON GAMIFIED SCENARIOS AND INTERACTIVE GAME

We have started developing interactive, age-appropriate games developed from bullying scenarios, which will be supported with a teacher guide and a students guide for navigation of the scenarios.
